

The EU's General Data Protection Regulation officially came into force on the 25th of May. The GDPR aims are primarily: to give control to citizens over their personal data and to simplify the regulatory environment for international business by unifying the regulation within the EU.

STEPS:

- 1) Find the key points
- 2) Keep it short and simple
- 3) Choose your style for two different scripts (One voice 200 words; Two voices 400 words)
- 4) Think about who will listen
- 5) Do some research. Be careful with the sources. Fact checking!
- 6) Pay attention to the beginning
- 7) Double check: always read the script back to yourself
- 8) Remember, you have until 15.15

Breaking News: Italy now has a government, 80 days after the elections. Many international politicians have commented on the situation. Here's what Angela Merkel said: "Even with Greece there were problems, but then we found an agreement. Let's hope in a stable government."

STEPS:

- 1) Find the key points
- 2) Keep it short and simple
- 3) Choose your style for two different scripts (One voice 200 words; Two voices 400 words)
- 4) Think about who will listen
- 5) Do some research. Be careful with the sources. Fact checking!
- 6) Pay attention to the beginning
- 7) Double check: always read the script back to yourself
- 8) Remember, you have until 15.15

Within 2025 EU member states will have to collect 90% of plastic bottles. This, together with a ban of single use products was a proposal from the European Commission in order to reduce plastic waste.

STEPS:

- 1) Find the key points
- 2) Keep it short and simple
- 3) Choose your style for two different scripts (One voice 200 words; Two voices 400 words)
- 4) Think about who will listen
- 5) Do some research. Be careful with the sources. Fact checking!
- 6) Pay attention to the beginning
- 7) Double check: always read the script back to yourself
- 8) Remember, you have until 15.15